Whole School Approach to Teaching and Learning:

- ✓ High Quality Teaching and Learning – All teachers are responsible for the learning and progress of every child in their class, including those with SEN.
- ✓ An inclusive, differentiated and personalised approach to enable all learners, including those with SEN, to engage with all aspects of school life.
- ✓ Refer to Teaching and Learning Policy

Our Graduated Response for Learners:

- ✓ Continual monitoring of the quality of teaching
- ✓ Identifying and tracking the progress of children/young people that require support to catch up by:
 - Termly assessments in core subjects
 - Multi-agency reports
 - On-going teacher assessment
 - Recorded progress of interventions
 - Termly target setting (IEPs)
 - Informal observations
- ✓ Identification of children/young people requiring SEN Support and initiation of “assess, plan, do, review” cycle.
- ✓ Consideration of application for Education, Health and Care Plan.
- ✓ All children/young people identified as requiring SEN Support, or with an Education, Health and Care Plan (or statement) are on our Record of Need (Priority record of Need)

How we identify children/young people that need additional or different provision:

- ✓ Class teacher refers to SENCO
 - when pupil fails to make progress within a differentiated wave 1 provision and continues to do so
 - When pupil attainment fails to meet age-related expectations and continues to do so
- ✓ Ongoing curriculum assessments
- ✓ Tracking progress using data
- ✓ Further assessments by specialists, including those from external agencies

We take a holistic approach by all aspects of a child’s development and well-being. Our pastoral support arrangements for supporting the emotional and social development of all children/young people, including those with SEN, is set out in our School Offer. Our measures to prevent bullying can be seen in our Anti-bullying policy.

How we listen to the views of children/young people and their parents:

| What | Who | When |
|------------------------------------|--|--|
| Informal Discussions | Teacher, support staff, SENCo, parents, pupils | As required, or at least termly |
| Parents' Evenings | Teacher | Twice a year (optional third), Termly for EYFS |
| Home-School Book | Support staff, parents, teacher | As required |
| Graduated Response Review meetings | Teacher, pupil and parent | Termly |

The Assess, Plan, Do, Review Cycle:

For children/young people on our Record of SEN Support, an Assess, Plan, Do, Review cycle will be established by SENCo in partnership with the child/young person, their parents and the class teacher. Please see our SEN Policy for further details.

This year, provision made for children/young people on our Record of SEN Support has been:

(NB: numbers from end of summer term 2018 Records)

Partnerships with other schools and how we manage transitions:

We work with a number of schools in the area in the following ways:

- ✓ Cluster SENCO network meetings
- ✓ Invited local schools to training
- ✓ Transition processes with secondary schools
- ✓ Invited SENCo of secondary school to AR
- ✓ Supported SENCo with transition SEN review for ex-pupil

Mid- year admissions: 2016/17

1 child/young person requiring SEN Support came to us from other schools,

0 child/young person with Education, Health and Care Plans came to us from other schools,

End of year Transition: 2016/17

7 children/young people on our Record of Need in 2015/16 made a successful move to secondary school.

3 child/ pupils with ECH plan made a successful move to secondary school (1 to a special school placement)

We ensure that the transition from Nursery to Reception is smooth by transition events in our setting, and visits by the EYFS teacher to nursery setting.

We support the transition from Reception to Year 1 by end of summer shared EYFS/Y1 sessions, leading into NC. Pupils meet the teacher afternoon, and parents meet the teacher session.

We help children to make the move from subsequent year groups by Pupil meet the teacher afternoon, and parents meet the teacher session.

The transition from year 6 to secondary school is supported through transition days, transition programme, sharing of SEN records.

For children/young people with SEN, we also facilitate additional transition events.

Parents are included in this process through thorough communication of all transition events.

Ongoing development:

We work hard to ensure that any areas of support for our learners that can be improved are identified and that strategies are put in place to make those improvements. We do this through our School Development Plan, which includes our SEN Development/Action Plan. This can be found via request from Head teacher.

Our complaints procedure:

Anyone wishing to make a complaint with regard to SEN support and provision should in the first instance, please speak to the SENCo. If you have further concerns, please refer to our complaints policy which can be found on our website.

This year we received no complaints with regard to SEN support and provision.
